To whom it may concern:

Rideau Finishing Services is an established contracting company, partnered with Benjamin Moore Painting and Decorating Services Incorporated. As the owner, I have had dealings with dozens of real estate brokers over 20 years. Many have impressed me and several have become friends.

When it was time to sell my own home/offices however, I chose Leslie Wheaton to represent my interest.

I chose her because she is thorough, eager and a consummate professional. Her market evaluation proved correct as the property sold quickly for 97% of my asking price. Further, she was invaluable at inspection time when the buyers hesitated. Her mediation skills ensured that the deal went through as originally agreed.

I have no hesitation in recommending Leslie Wheaton as a valuable ally in any real estate deals.

Sincerely,
